LEGAL ORGANIZATION AND ATTORNEYS CONTACTED

1. ACLU, 132 West 43rd Street, NY, NY 10036
2. American Society of Law and Medicine, 765 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts 02215
3. Legal Services for Prisoners, 1540 Market Street, #490, San Francisco, California 94310
4. Human Rights Watch, 1630 Connecticut Avenue, NW #500, Washington DC 20009
5. Prison Watch Project, 89 Market Street, 6th Floor, Newark, NJ 07102

* The above list is only a partial list. Phelps contacted more than 200 other attorneys, law firms, and legal organizations and maintained a list but Officer Krauss and Officer Dudas spitefully destroyed many legal documents from the courts, letters from attorneys, and other papers, including the listings of people contacted. Phelps filed complaints against the officers but no action was taken against them.

Phelps contacted many mental health professionals and maintained a list of possible witnesses to be used at the trials, but Krauss and Dudas spitefully and maliciously destroyed these files in retaliation of Phelps filing complaints against them and against other officers.

All of the attorneys that Phelps contacted would not accept any of the cases that Phelps had in court. ALL of them stated that the cases were too complex for them.

One stated that he wanted simple cases such as " slip and fall" cases.

Of the very few that would accept the cases, noone would accept the cases on a contingency basis. Each wanted a retainer fee in addition to an hourly fee and costs. The minimum retainer fee was $25,000.<sup>00</sup> ( the maximum was $150,000.<sup>00</sup>)

The minimum hourly fee was $200.<sup>00</sup> per hour and the maximum hourly fee was $350.<sup>00</sup> per hour.

Paying court filing fees of $4,000.<sup>00</sup> over a five year period is greatly different from the exorbitant cost the attorneys demanded.

No attorney would accept the cases on a pro bono standing. No legal organization would accept the cases on a pro bono standing.... not even those who accept pro bono cases.

Each time Phelps would read a case in the law books that was similiar to his, he would contact the attorney that represented the case to ask the attorney to represent him. No attorney accepted the cases.

Most of the attorneys did not even respond to the letters. Phelps dose not know if they just refused to answer or if the employees at the prison just destroyed his mail out of spiteful retaliation( as they have done.)
